Holy Hour in anticipation of the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

Adóro te devóte, latens Déitas, Quae sub his figúris vere látitas:
Tibi se cor meum totum súbjicit,
Quia te contéplans totum déficit.

O memoriále mortis Dómini,
Panis vivus vitam praestans hómini,
Praesta meae menti de te vívere,
Et te illi semper dulce sápere.

Jesu, quem velátum nunc aspício,
Oro fiat illud quod tam sítio:
Ut te reveláta cernens fácie,
Visu sim beátus tuae glóriæ.

Opening Prayer

All: Lord, Jesus Christ, we are here to worship you, present in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar. Through this act of adoration, we want to re-affirm our love for you. May our prayers of thanksgiving tell you how grateful we are for all that you have done for us and for our loved ones. May our presence in some way make amends to you for our past indifference and neglect of you in our daily lives. Give us the ability to see our need of you and of each other. Through this encounter with you, help us to live together as you want us to live, united by love, by understanding, and by mutual concern. We ask you to bless your chosen ones among us—the poor, the sick, and the lonely. Finally, Savior of us all, help us to use these minutes here with you as a time of rededication. Make our love for you and for all the driving force of our lives so that others may see you through us. Amen.

Scripture Reading 1

Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7

Thus says the LORD:

Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one with whom I am pleased, upon whom I have put my spirit;
he shall bring forth justice to the nations, not crying out, not shouting,
not making his voice heard in the street.
a bruised reed he shall not break, and a smoldering wick he shall not quench, until he establishes justice on the earth;
the coastlands will wait for his teaching.

I, the LORD, have called you for the victory of justice,
I have grasped you by the hand;
I formed you, and set you as a covenant of the people, a light for the nations,
to open the eyes of the blind,
to bring out prisoners from confinement, and from the dungeon, those who live in darkness.

Song

Chorus

O come, all you unfaithful
Come, weak and unstable
Come, know you are not alone

O come, barren and waiting ones
Weary of praying, come
See what your God has done

Chorus

Christ is born, Christ is born
Christ is born for you

O come, bitter and broken
Come with fears unspoken
Come, taste of His perfect love

O come, guilty and hiding ones
There is no need to run
See what your God has done

Chorus

He's the Lamb who was given Slain for our pardon
His promise is peace
For those who believe

x2

So come, though you have nothing
Come, He is the offering Come, see what your God has done

Christ is born, Christ is born
Christ is born for you
Christ is born, Christ is born
Christ is born for you

Scripture Reading 2

Mark 1:1-11

The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ (the Son of God).

As it is written in Isaiah the prophet:
"Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you;
he will prepare your way.

A voice of one crying out in the desert:
'Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths.'"

John (the) Baptist appeared in the desert proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.
People of the whole Judean countryside and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the Jordan River as they acknowledged their sins.
John was clothed in camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist.
He fed on locusts and wild honey.
And this is what he proclaimed:
"One mightier than I is coming after me.
I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals.
I have baptized you with water;
he will baptize you with the holy Spirit."

It happened in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized in the Jordan by John.
On coming up out of the water he saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit, like a dove, descending upon him.
And a voice came from the heavens,
"You are my beloved Son;
with you I am well pleased."

Song – Simeon's Song

Verse 1

The day has come, my eyes have seen

Your salvation laid before me
Which You've prepared, for all to see Your light, Your glory here to set us free

Pre-Chorus

Just like You've promised, just like the prophets said
The hope of the world is here

Chorus 1

Jesus, Jesus
The wait is done, Our King has come to us
Jesus, Jesus
We can now give our praise to Him
The promised One has come, has come

Verse 2

As we behold, this One foretold
We see the face of God before us
Let us wait no more, to bow and to adore
Our Lord, our God, our King forevermore

Bridge

We sing hallelujah, hallelujah
The promised One is here, our Savior has now come
We sing hallelujah, hallelujah
The promised One is here, our Savior has now come

Chorus 2

Jesus, Jesus
The wait is done, Our King has come to us
Jesus, Jesus
We can now give our praise to Him
The promised One has come, has come

Scripture Reading 3

Mark 16:14-20

((But) later, as the eleven were at table [after Jesus's Resurrection], he appeared to them and rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart because they had not believed those who saw him after he had been raised.
He said to them,
"Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature.
Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved;
whoever does not believe will be condemned.
These signs will accompany those who believe:
in my name they will drive out demons, they will speak new languages.
They will pick up serpents (with their hands), and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not harm them.
They will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

So then the Lord Jesus, after he spoke to them, was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God.
But they went forth and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the word through accompanying signs.)

Song – The Summons

Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown? Will you let my name be known, will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer in you and you in me?

Will you let the blinded see if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean and do such as this unseen, and admit to what I mean in you and you in me?

Will you love the "you" you hide if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around, through my sight and touch and sound in you and you in me?

Lord your summons echoes true when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you and never be the same.
In Your company I'll go where Your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me.

Scripture Reading 4 Acts 2:37-43

Now when [the crowd] heard this, they were cut to the heart, and they asked Peter and the other apostles,
"What are we to do, my brothers?"
Peter (said) to them,
"Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins;
and you will receive the gift of the holy Spirit.
For the promise is made to you and to your children and to all those far off, whomever the Lord our God will call."
He testified with many other arguments, and was exhorting them,
"Save yourselves from this corrupt generation."
Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand persons were added that day.
They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of the bread, and to the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles.

Song – Holy Spirit

There's nothing worth more
That could ever come close
No thing can compare
You're our living hope

Your presence, Lord
I've tasted and seen
Of the sweetest of loves
Where my heart becomes free
And my shame is undone
Your presence, Lord

Chorus

Holy Spirit, You are welcome here
Come flood this place and fill the atmosphere
Your glory, God, is what our hearts long for
To be overcome by Your presence, Lord
Your presence, Lord

Let us become more aware of Your presence
Let us experience the glory of Your goodness
