Opening Prayer

All: Lord, Jesus Christ, we are here to worship you, present in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar. Through this act of adoration, we want to re-affirm our love for you. May our prayers of thanksgiving tell you how grateful we are for all that you have done for us and for our loved ones. May our presence in some way make amends to you for our past indifference and neglect of you in our daily lives. Give us the ability to see our need of you and of each other. Through this encounter with you, help us to live together as you want us to live, united by love, by understanding, and by mutual concern. We ask you to bless your chosen ones among us—the poor, the sick, and the lonely. Finally, Savior of us all, help us to use these minutes here with you as a time of rededication. Make our love for you and for all the driving force of our lives so that others may see you through us. Amen.

Reading 1: 1 Kings 8:22-23, 27-30

In those days:

Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD
in the presence of the whole community of Israel,
and stretching forth his hands toward heaven, he said, “LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven above or on earth below;
you keep your covenant of mercy with your servants who are faithful to you with their whole heart.

“Can it indeed be that God dwells on earth?
If the heavens and the highest heavens cannot contain you, how much less this temple which I have built!
Look kindly on the prayer and petition of your servant,
O LORD, my God,
and listen to the cry of supplication which I, your servant,
utter before you this day.
May your eyes watch night and day over this temple,
the place where you have decreed you shall be honored;
may you heed the prayer which I, your servant, offer in this place.
Listen to the petitions of your servant
and of your people Israel which they offer in this place.
Listen from your heavenly dwelling and grant pardon.”

Priest's Reflection/Prayer:

God the Father, we thank you for our beautiful parish and church.
Look kindly upon the prayers and petitions of your servants today as we prepare for a Golden Jubilee Year to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the founding of St. Denis parish.

Reading 2: John 15:12-17

Jesus said to his disciples,
“This is my commandment: love one another as I love you.
No one has greater love than this,
to lay down one's life for one's friends.
You are my friends if you do what I command you.
I no longer call you slaves,
because a slave does not know what his master is doing.
I have called you friends,
because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father.
It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you.
This I command you: love one another.”

Priest's Reflection/Prayer:

Jesus, you are our Lord and Savior, and also our friend.
Help us to develop and nurture a close, one-on-one friendship with you where we talk and communicate with you throughout each day about everything that is happening in our lives and in our world.
Help us to discern how you are responding to us and what you are calling us to do;
and help us to follow through and do what you want us to do.

LOVE ONE ANOTHER

Bob Dufford, SJ

Refrain: All

Love one an - oth - er as I have loved you. Care for each oth - er. I have cared for you. Bear each oth - er's bur - dens.
Bind each oth - er's wounds; and so you will know my re - turn.

*Verses: Cantor

1. My friends, do you know what I have done for you?
I have washed your feet with my hands.
If I, your Lord, have knelt at your feet,
you should do at each other's feet
as I have done for you.
2. When the world will hate you and revile you,
when they laugh at your care
for the poor,
when they hold you in darkness
and imprison your tongues,
remember how they listened to me.
3. Let not your hearts be troubled.
Put your trust in God and in me.
In my Father's home I prepare your room, that where I am you may be.
4. This bread which I give is my body.
This cup holds the blood of my life.
5. And all will be broken that you may have life,
that you may learn to forgive.
5. I am the vine, you are the branches.
Remain in my love and bring forth fruit.
6. For love is patient, love is kind,
love is always there to forgive,
to endure.
All the world will crumble,
but love will remain;
for Love's own self is God.
7. You will weep in pain
while the world rejoices,
but your grief will be changed
into joy.
For the world will forget you,
but have courage, my friends,
for I have overcome the world.

Reading 3: John 15:4-5, 7-8

Jesus said to his disciples,

“Remain in me, as I remain in you.

Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me.

I am the vine, you are the branches.

Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing.

If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want and it will be done for you.

By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.

Priest's Reflection/Prayer:

Dearest Jesus, without you, we can do nothing.
Separated from you, we can achieve nothing.
But together with you and with each other,
we can do everything that you want us to do.
Help us to remain in you and bear much fruit.

I Will Be the Vine

Refrain

I will be the vine and you will be the branch-es. All you who live in me will nev - er, nev - er die.

I will be the sign, I will of - fer man - y chanc-es; so live, oh live in me and you shall have new life.

Verses 1, 2

1. Re - main in me, as I re-main in
2. As the Fa - ther loved me, so have I loved you. You may ask what you will, ask what you you. Re - main in my love, re - main in my will, and you shall re - ccive.
love, and I will give you life.

Reading 4: Romans 12:4-8

For as in one body we have many parts,
and all the parts do not have the same function,
so we, though many, are one body in Christ and individually parts of one another.
Since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us,
let us exercise them:
if prophecy, in proportion to the faith;
if ministry, in ministering; if one is a teacher, in teaching;
if one exhorts, in exhortation;
if one contributes, in generosity;
if one is over others, with diligence;
if one does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness.

Priest's Reflection/Prayer:

Dear Jesus, we who follow you are part of your mystical body;
and you are the head.
We have different gifts according to the graces given to us.
Help us to exercise our gifts wisely and well, and to share your Good News and your love with everyone
—family, friends, neighbors, coworkers, and others, including strangers.

Prayer for St. Denis's 50th Anniversary
Golden Jubilee Year

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the gift of St. Denis Parish—for all of the priests, deacons, lay ministers, leaders, and staff who have served the parish, and for the thousands of parishioners who have generously supported St. Denis with their time, talent, and treasure over the past 50 years.
Graciously bless them all.

Help us to build on their legacy, and to be good and faithful stewards of what You have entrusted to us.

Because we can do nothing without Your Son,
help us to know and love Him more each day,
and to be united with Him—and with each other—in all things,
so that:

- Strengthened by Christ, we will persevere through the COVID-19 pandemic and every hardship.
- Guided by Christ, we will proclaim the Gospel by our words and actions to every creature, including family, friends, and strangers.
- Together with Christ, we will serve the poor and needy, and those on the margins of society.

Through the intercession of St. Denis, our patron saint,
and the Blessed Virgin Mary,
our mother and the mother of the Church, please bless and renew us; and bless and renew our beautiful parish.

We ask all of this through Jesus Christ, our Lord, in the unity of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Presider: You have given them Bread from heaven.

Response: Having all sweetness within it.

Presider: Lord Jesus Christ, you gave us the Eucharist as the memorial of your suffering and death. May our worship of this sacrament of your body and blood help us to experience the salvation you won for us and the peace of the kingdom, where you live with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.

Response: Amen

Eucharistic Blessing

Divine Praises

Blessed be God
Blessed be his Holy Name.
Blessed be Jesus Christ, true God and true Man.
Blessed be the Name of Jesus.
Blessed be his most Sacred Heart.
Blessed be his most Precious Blood.
Blessed be Jesus in the most Holy Sacrament of the Altar.
Blessed be the Holy Spirit, the Paraclete.
Blessed be the great Mother of God, Mary most holy.
Blessed be her holy and Immaculate Conception.

Blessed be her glorious Assumption.
Blessed be the name of Mary, Virgin and Mother.
Blessed be St. Joseph, her most chaste spouse.
Blessed be God in his angels and in his saints.

Reposition of the Blessed Sacrament

Closing Hymn

Holy God, we praise thy name;
Lord of all, we bow before thee!
All on earth thy scepter claim,
All in heav'n above adore thee;
Infinite, thy vast domain,
Everlasting is thy reign.

Hark! the loud celestial hymn
Angel choirs above are raising,
Cherubim and seraphim,
In unceasing chorus praising;
Fill the heavens with sweet accord:
Holy, holy, holy, Lord.
